BRITISH VALUES-Rule of Law

Teaching this British Value should:

- enable students to distinguish right from wrong and to respect the civil and criminal law of Britain
- encourage students to accept responsibility for their behaviour, show initiative, and to understand how they can contribute positively to the lives of those living and working in the locality of the school and to society more widely

What is Rule of Law?

The rule of law is the importance of following the rules set by law, in order for us to be safe and happy. It means understanding what is right and wrong. and the consequences for when rules are broken.

Key Vocabulary	Definition
government	People who make and administer rules to live by.
accountability	Taking responsibility for your own actions.
consequence	The effect, result or outcome of something occurring earlier.
law	Rules, set by government, that have to be followed.

At St Michael's, we are taught the importance of following the rules from an early age. Our behaviour rules are: We respect everyone/We keep ourselves and others safe/We are ready. They are used to hold us accountable for our behaviour.
