BRITISH VALUES-Mutual Respect

Teaching this British Value should:

- encourage respect for other people
- encourage respect for other people, paying particular regard to the protected characteristics set out in the Equality Act 2010.

What is Mutual Respect?

Mutual respect is understanding that we all don't share the same beliefs and values, ideas and beliefs of others whilst not imposing our own on others. People may not agree on everything but they are able to work things out.

Key Vocabulary	Definition
mutual	A feeling or action shared in common by two or more people.
respect	Regard for the feeling, wishes and rights of others.
values	Principles or standards of behaviour.
imposing	Forcing decisions or ideas on others.

At St Michael's, respecting others and our environment is very important to us. We learn about respect in Collective Worship and class discussion, and think about how we can show respect to all people in our school and community, regardless of whether we agree with them or not.
